Nestled beside the Little Stour, Ickham offers a quintessential Kentish setting complete with a village green, the well-regarded Duke William pub/restaurant, and an active village hall hosting many annual events. Everyday essentials are close by in the thriving village of Wingham, which provides a post office, greengrocer, village store, several pubs, doctors and dentists surgeries, and a well-respected primary school.

The area boasts excellent leisure and recreation opportunities, including Howletts Wild Animal Park, Wingham Wildlife Park, and a selection of prestigious golf courses such as Royal St George's in Sandwich and Princes Golf Club in Deal. The surrounding countryside offers wonderful walking and cycling routes, while coastal locations nearby provide fishing and water sports.
